L.I: To polish and publish a Modern retelling of Romeo and Juliet

The next Couple of days the Secret Wedding day drew near and Friar Laurence Married the delighted Couple, Romeo and Juliet. Later that afternoon Romeo was walking through Verona when all of a sudden Tybalt tried to Challenge him in a fight. Romeo replied, "I'm not going to fight you I'm More Mature than that" as he walked away. However, Mercutio was Furious.

After that he Shouted, "I will fight you, you little weakling!"

Tybalt exclaimed, "Come and have a go if you think you're hard enough!"

The two Men Were Furious as they fought.

Devastatingly Mercutio fell to his death. Romeo ran back with rage and killed Tybalt, Juliet cousin. The prince of Verona heard this news and banished Romeo forever.

Meanwhile, Juliet was crying to Friar Laurence after hearing some life changing news; her parents were forcing her to marry Paris. Desperate to help Friar Laurence began thinking of a plan to keep the delighted lovers together. Instantly a light bulb shone above his head and he came up with a solution. He ground down some sleeping pills with minced beef and made a burger.

He exclaimed, "If you eat this burger you will appear dead for 42 hours You can then run away with Romeo."

"Please don't forget to tweet Romeo the plan!" pleaded Juliet.

He replied, "Of course My dear."

Juliet ate the buger and drifted off into her dreams.

Not long after, Lord and Lady Capulet discovered Juliet did not awake for breakfast. Unexpectedly, they ran up the spiral stair case into Juliet's room, full of curiosity. To their surprise they found their delicate daughter dead. They weeped with a broken heart. As they transported Juliet to the tomb there was a rassel in the bush. Romeo's personal assitant, Balthazar observed this tragic event. In the blink of an eye he darted back to tell Romeo terrible news. Romeo fell to the floor with a deflated Soul. Instantly he dashed to Juliet, "If my wife is dead, you've taken me aswell." At that second, Friar Laurence was sat thinking he'd forgotten to do something.

Panting, Romeo arrived at the Capulet tomb, his heart stopped, the moment he saw Juliet he deflated with sorrow. He saw his wife laying there lifeless. Sobbing he kissed her for the last time and at that moment he quickly drank the posion. Minutes later Juliet awoke and saw Romeo laying dead next to her. She shattered to pieces. Juliet saw Romeo's dagger and killed herself. The two tragic lovers were found. The Mayor of Verona blamed the two families, announcing, "For never was a story of more woe than that of Juliet and her Romeo."
